Comment This bright, pale yellow Chardonnay opens with an immediate richness on the nose with meal, peach and fresh citrus aromas. Subtle minerality and a light toastiness add to the complex flavour profile that carries through to the mouthfilling yet firmly structured palate. Dense and concentrated with a racy citrus finish, this wine is delicious now but has the tautness and harmony to reward a few more years of cellaring.

Short description Immediate freshness, peach, citrus and subtle minerality. A delicious, dense and concentrated Chardonnay with a racy finish. (June 2011)
