Comment

A subtle and refined Clayvin Chardonnay with ample fruit and complexity and the extra minerally dimension, distinguishing this terroir from our other Chardonnays. The wine is rich and long without being heavy and finishes with a clean dryness. Fermented and matured for about 16 months in Burgundy barrels (no new wood), this wine combines fine texture and firm structure with an all important sense of place.

Short description

Subtle and refined Chardonnay, complex with ample fruit, fine minerality and a clean dryness in the finish. (July 2007)
