Comment

Of all the 1998 red wines made by Fromm Winery, the Malbec is the highlight of the vintage. The very hot, dry summer produced a healthy, fully ripe crop of the usual concentration but with extraordinary richness and generosity. Deep, dense colour, pure Malbec on the nose supported by fine, well integrated wood, all together giving an impression of intense vibrancy and warmth. The palate is equally lively and complex. The unpolished but fine and very ripe tannins complete this rare wine. It will age well but for Malbec lovers it will already be beautiful now.
