Comment	The 2004 Riesling Dry combines steely citrus fruit with racy acidity. Balanced with a few grams of residual sugar, the wine appears fresh and dry. It has a firm, tight structure, good weight and complexity but above all it has elegance and finesse and tastes delicious with its soft textured finish.
Short description	Deliciously fresh Riesling with steely citrus fruit and racy acidity. Good weight, quite complex; dry, elegant and vibrant finish. (December 2004)
