	Total acidity	8.7 g/l
	pH	2.78
	Residual sugar	62 g/l

Comment The 2008 Spätlese is one of the lightest, most racy and stimulating Rieslings we have made, leaning more towards the freshness of a %kabinett-style+ (a specific German term for this type of wine).

The nose is still slightly reserved with typical flavours of citrus, apple and hints of stone fruit, followed by a mouth-watering, clean, fresh palate sensation. The wine has great structure and balance with a harmonious play between sweetness, acid and fine minerality. At only 7% alcohol, this Riesling is the perfect wine for a summer lunch or just to be enjoyed on its own.

Short description Mouth-watering and racy Riesling with citrus, apple and stone fruit flavours, fine minerality and balance. Sweet yet cleansing finish. (November 2009)
