Comment

Syrah is another variety which benefitted from the hot and dry weather conditions of 1998. The nose is complex, dense and vibrant, almost spicy, with a warm richness. Already very appealing on the palate, it shows great ripeness with very fine tannins. A complete, harmonious wine with less emphasis on structure and varietal expression than previous vintages. However the wine is unmistakably Syrah with good aging potential.

Short description

A complete, harmonious Syrah from a hot, dry vintage. Dense, vibrant and almost spicy with a warm richness and fine tannins. (November 1999)
