Comment The grapes for this wine were sourced from two vineyard sites in the Brancott Valley. Due to frost related losses the yields were less than one third of a normal vintage.

The nose is quite restrained and compact, showing refined cool climate characteristics. Mouthfilling, pleasing texture, slightly austere flavour profile, firm and elegant. Good ripeness for the style.

Short description Restrained and compact style, good ripeness, firm and elegant, slightly austere yet with a pleasing mouthfilling texture. (December 2004)
